

ANOTHER BIG STRIKE IN FRANCE

City of Paris Threatened With a Scarcity of Food Supplies

80,000 RAILROAD MEN ARE OUT

Freight, Mail and Passenger Transportation Partly Prostrated—Government Calls to the Colors 30,000 Employees of the Northern Road, thus Subjecting the Men to Military Discipline—Indications of a Tie-Up.

Paris, Oct. 11.—The French government is again facing a serious strike situation. The employees of the Northern railroad went on strike early today, and tonight the strike spread to the Western railroad, which is owned by the state. Indications are tomorrow.

Movement May Become Widespread. The strikes at the present time involve about 80,000 men. The strike on the Western road was voted this morning by the employees of the Paris and in the suburbs. They count upon the national unions to tie up the railroads in the East. The movement may possibly also extend to the Eastern and the Paris, Lyons and Mediterranean railroads.

Food Supplies Threatened. As is usual in such circumstances, the city is threatened with a shortage of food supplies. Freight, mail and passenger transportation is paralyzed.

Had Letters Connecting Him With Dynamiting the Los Angeles Times.	Little Fellow Taken to Hospital—Was But Slightly Injured.

Sacramento, Cal., Oct. 11.—George Wallace was arrested at the Sacramento postoffice today while receiving letters which it is declared connect him with the Los Angeles Times dynamiting.

He is supposed to be a miner and familiar with high explosives.

Detectives have been stationed at the postoffice for several days, during which time Wallace and he were arrested just as Wallace was endeavoring to destroy two letters.

Pieced together, one of the letters state that Wallace left Los Angeles suddenly the day following the dynamiting of the building and that he was in contact with a person who knows much concerning the affair.

The writer used better language in speaking of Harry Chandler, manager of Harrison Gray Otis, owner of The Times.

"If I only could see you, George, I could tell you a whole lot of things, but one can't be too careful what he writes in a letter," the letter says.

The letter refers to the dynamiting, but, curiously,

When arrested, Wallace showed some indication of being about to collapse. After he had been taken to the hospital, the doctor stated that he became worse. Wallace told chief Ahern that he had been employed at Los Angeles as a gardener. It is believed, however, that he is a miner, and it is known his friend who wrote that there were no broken bones, and as the child was not conscious, Mr. Taft visited the hospital again this morning and had the satisfaction of seeing the boy discharged and taken home. The older brother, who accompanied the injured boy to the hospital, said that he was not hurt, and a few months ago had both legs broken.
